

YEAR 2019

Year 2019 was a successful year full of major events, conferences, meetings and accomplishments. On behalf of the Faculty I would like to present some of the major events which we are very much proud of during this year. Many of these presented events are annually organized, all the events are available on our official Faculty website. I would also like to thank all of those that participated and helped with the organisation of these events during this year.
